

Sunday, April 20, 12 to 4 p.m.
Woodside Elementary School

Sponsored by the Town of Woodside, the Conservation & Environmental Health Committee, and Woodside Green.

Printed on 100% recycled, chlorine free paper using soy-based inks.

Join your community at Green Fair 2008 for a day of fun and fresh discoveries on how to 'green up' your life, featuring:

- Exhibits ~ tools for reducing our "carbon footprint." Talk to experts about solar energy, home energy audits, alternative fuel vehicles, local organic foods, gardening and a host of other interesting topics.
- Tim Cain, award-winning children's singer/guitarist.
- Prize drawings for attendees who walk or ride bikes.
- A tasting of local, organic foods (Tickets required, see below.)
- Wildlife Associates will present some beautiful wild creatures and explain their place in our changing world.
- 'Green' Gift for attendees (while supplies last.)
- View inspiring 'green-theme' video clips.
- Display of children's art on the theme of global warming.
- The Woodside Village Band.
- Awards ceremony for Environmental Champion, Woodside Creeks Champion, Heritage Tree Award and Art Competition.

The event is free; no admission tickets required. Tickets for the organic foods tasting are $10 for adults, $5 for children under 12 and will be available in a limited quantity at Town Hall through April 11. Town Hall is open M-F, 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. 851-6790.